

I am a regular listener of Christian radio, and I am strongly against the new rulings of the FCC. I am against the new fairness doctrine, I think each radio station should be in control of what they play and the views they express on the radio station. These new rulings are going to put hardships on all the radio stations. So please don't pass these new rulings.